

BNGAP

Building the Next Generation of Academic Physicians

OUR MISSION

TO HELP DIVERSE MEDICAL STUDENTS AND RESIDENTS EMBARK UPON AN ACADEMIC MEDICINE CAREER

LETTER FROM THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

Welcome to the August 2025 BNGAP Newsletter!

As a new academic year begins, BNGAP proudly welcomes the medical school Class of 2029! Whether you're just beginning your journey in medicine or continuing your training, we celebrate your commitment to becoming leaders in academic medicine and health equity.

We are also excited to welcome our new BNGAP chapters for the 2025–2026 academic year. Your leadership and passion are essential to advancing BNGAP's mission across the country, and we look forward to collaborating with each of you in the months ahead. We'll officially kick off the year at our Chapter Orientation on August 3rd, where we'll unite in vision and purpose.

A special congratulations goes out to Roseman University College of Medicine on enrolling its inaugural class of medical students, following its recent LCME Preliminary Accreditation. We especially recognize the leadership of BNGAP Board Member Cheryl Brewster, EdD, MA, whose efforts have been instrumental in shaping this bold and inclusive new institution.

Finally, we celebrate the growth of the National Center for Pre-Faculty Development, now proudly supported by 15 institutional members. Together, we are building a stronger, more diverse academic medicine workforce from pipeline to professorship.

JOHN P. SANCHEZ, MD, MPH
PRESIDENT, BNGAP INC.

UPCOMING EVENTS

National BNGAP Conference
Date TBD
(Information to be announced)

CELEBRATING COMMUNITY PROMOTIONS

Shelvy Campbell, PhD

Marshall University Joan C. Edwards School of Medicine
May 25, 2025

Shelvy L. Campbell-Monroe, PhD, MPH, has been appointed as the new Senior Associate Dean for Admissions, Advising, and Student Life at the School of Medicine.

Dr. Campbell-Monroe brings more than 35 years of leadership experience to this expanded role in which she will oversee the admissions process for the School of Medicine's MD program, manage the MD advising program and foster a vibrant and supportive student life experience.

ROSEMAN UNIVERSITY WELCOMES THEIR FIRST CLASS OF MEDICAL STUDENTS

Roseman University College of Medicine, Las Vegas, NV

This month we celebrate Roseman University College of Medicine (RUCOM) on being granted Preliminary Accreditation by the Liaison Committee on Medical Education (LCME) and the historic occasion of welcoming your inaugural class of medical students. These future physicians have the unique distinction of being the first to learn and grow under a visionary curriculum designed to meet the needs of an increasingly diverse and dynamic healthcare landscape.

We are especially proud to recognize the leadership of Dr. Cheryl Brewster, EdD, MA, BNGAP Board Member and Senior Executive Dean for Access, Opportunity, and Collaboration; Professor, Department of Bioethics, Humanism, and Policy at RUCOM. Dr. Brewster's unwavering dedication to equity, access, and academic excellence has been instrumental to BNGAP's success and we look forward to witnessing RUCOM's continued growth and the impact your graduates will make on the future of healthcare.

(Dr. Brewster pictured third person from right)

STANFORD SEEKING REPRODUCTIVE ENDOCRINOLOGIST

Stanford Medicine's Fertility and Reproductive Health Service

Stanford Medicine's Fertility and Reproductive Health Service (FRHS) is seeking a board certified/eligible reproductive endocrinologist to join its busy practice and direct our Q+ family building program. The Q+ Family Building clinic at Stanford Medicine Children's Health is a fertility program that is entirely dedicated to providing comprehensive LGBTQ+ family building care in an academic setting, and includes a dedicated physician assistant, nurse and patient care coordinator. The Candidates will be expected to participate in the full spectrum of clinical reproductive services, assisted reproduction and fertility preservation procedures as well as contribute to teaching students, residents, and fellows in the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology. In addition, there are opportunities to participate in clinical research depending on the interests of the candidate. Excellent clinical acumen, leadership and surgical skills are required.

The FRHS team includes some of the country's leading embryologists, reproductive endocrinologists, advanced practice providers, nurses, and technicians. In addition to a full spectrum of assisted reproductive technology, Stanford Fertility is the home of several multi-specialty programs including a robust oncofertility, Q+ family building, recurrent pregnancy loss, endometrial health, full service urology services, and reproductive genetics programs. Fertility services are offered as part of the world-class Johnson Center for Pregnancy and Newborn Services, where patients and families benefit from a smooth transition from fertility care to obstetric, neonatal, and pediatric care. FRHS is housed in a new, specially designed, state-of-the-art facility.

Salary Range:

The expected base pay range for this position is:

Clinical Assistant Professor $305,000 – $329,000

Clinical Associate Professor $370,000 – $388,000

Clinical Professor $411,000 - $439,000

REQUIREMENTS

DO, MD, or MD PhD degree with completion of a 4-year ACGME residency in Obstetrics & Gynecology and an ACGME approved 3-year fellowship in Reproductive Endocrinology and Infertility are required. Board Certified/Board Eligible in Obstetrics and Gynecology and in Reproductive Endocrinology and Infertility are required.

To learn more or to apply for this position, please send CV, letter of interest, and three references to:

Dr. Ruth Lathi

Chief, Division of Reproductive Endocrinology and Infertility

Email: cseckel@stanford.edu

Link: <https://obgyn.stanford.edu/faculty-and-staff/job-openings.html>

Stanford | MEDICINE

NEW ACADEMIC YEAR, NEW BNGAP CHAPTER LEADERS!

BNGAP Chapters

Congratulations to the new BNGAP Chapter Leaders! We are thrilled to welcome the new class of medical student leaders as we work together to build a more diverse, inclusive, and representative academic medicine workforce.

Your leadership represents a powerful commitment to mentorship, advocacy, and equity. As a chapter leader, you are not only shaping the experiences of your local members, but also contributing to the national movement to diversify the academic medicine pathway.

The BNGAP National Leadership Team is excited to meet you at the upcoming Chapter Orientation on Saturday, August 3rd. Following meetings will occur every other month. This session will be an opportunity to connect with fellow leaders, learn about resources and expectations, and begin strategizing for an impactful year ahead.

We look forward to supporting you and watching your chapters thrive. Thank you for stepping into this important role—your leadership makes a difference.

For more information about BNGAP Chapters please visit:
<https://bngap.org/bngap-chapters/>

NATIONAL CENTER FOR PRE-FACULTY DEVELOPEMENT

Welcome to the 2025-2026 Center Members

- Albany Medical College
- Carver College of Medicine, University of Iowa
- Columbia Vagelos College of Physicians and Surgeons
- Eastern Virginia Medical School, Macon & Joan Brock Virginia Health Sciences at Old Dominion University
- Geisinger College of Health Sciences
- George Washington University School of Medicine and Health Sciences
- Kiran C Patel College of Allopathic Medicine
- Marshall University Joan C. Edwards School of Medicine
- New York Medical College Office of Diversity and Inclusion
- Oklahoma University College of Medicine
- Rowan-Virtua School of Osteopathic Medicine
- Stanford School of Medicine, Center of Excellence in Diversity in Medical Education (COEDME)
- University of California Riverside School of Medicine
- University of Illinois College of Medicine
- University of New Mexico Health Sciences

COUNCIL OF DEANS LCME ADVISORY GROUP

Débora H. Silva Díaz, MD, FAAP, MEd

BNGAP leadership would like to extend our warmest congratulations to Dr. Silva (Dean, Professor, Department of Pediatrics, School of Medicine, University of Puerto Rico) on her selection to the Council of Deans LCME Advisory Group.

This prestigious appointment is a testament to her outstanding leadership, dedication to academic excellence, and unwavering commitment to advancing medical education.

WELCOME TO THE MEDICAL SCHOOL CLASS OF 2029

Congratulations members of the Medical School Class of 2029!

You are now part of a remarkable community of learners, leaders, and future providers. As you begin this transformative journey into medicine, know that you are stepping into a calling that is as challenging as it is rewarding. Each one of you brings a unique story, passion, and perspective to the field—and that diversity of thought and experience will not only enrich your education but also the lives of your future patients.

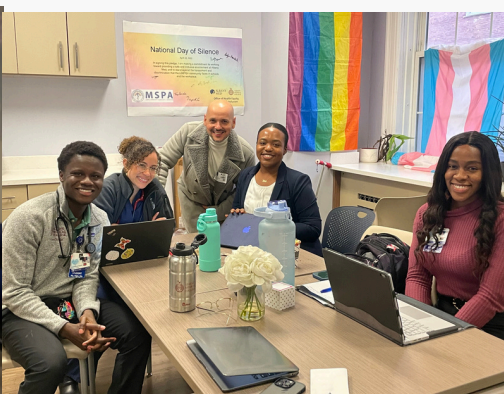

The next few years will test your resilience, deepen your compassion, and sharpen your intellect. You'll study the intricacies of the human body, learn to navigate uncertainty, and witness both the fragility and strength of the human spirit. There will be long nights, tough exams, and humbling clinical experiences—but also moments of profound connection, growth, and purpose.

Remember, you are not alone. Lean on your classmates, faculty, mentors, and the broader medical community. Ask questions, seek feedback, and never lose sight of the reason you chose this path in the first place.

Take pride in how far you've come—and look forward with excitement to all that lies ahead. We can't wait to see the impact you'll make, the lives you'll touch, and the physician you'll become.

Welcome to medical school. You are our future academic leaders.

With admiration and support,
BNGAP Executive Board and Leadership

BNGAP 15 YEAR ANNIVERSARY

National Pre-Faculty Development conference

BNGAP 15 Year Anniversary,

The BNGAP National 'Pre-Faculty' Career Development Conference for Diverse Trainees and Faculty is the first forum to bring together trainees, faculty, and senior leaders to share and discuss activities and best practices in building the next generation of academic health professionals.

We are excited to invite you to attend the 15th anniversary BNGAP National 'Pre-Faculty' Career Development Conference for Diverse Trainees and Faculty, an unparalleled opportunity for growth, learning, and networking.

The BNGAP National Pre-Faculty Development Conference is designed to equip you with the knowledge, skills, and connections necessary to excel in your academic and professional journey. Whether you are just beginning your career or are a seasoned professional looking to expand your horizons, this conference offers something for everyone.

This year we celebrate 15 years of inclusive excellence across of our institutional members, student chapters, and partnering organizations.

Its time we come together as a community in light of current events.

About the conference here: Information to be announced!

Tentatively planned for Mid 2026, date to be announced

Join our community today!
Register at www.BNGAP.org/registration

